October and November

Celebrating Cottage and Country Life in Madawaska & Addington Highlands of Eastern Ontario

Happy Thanksgiving! Turkey hunters in WMU 58, please report your Spring harvest to the MNR if you want a Fall hunt in the future. Article Pg. 4

Welcome!

Male turkey displaying for a female, who doesn't seem impressed. Matawatchan May 2014

The Madawaska Highlands inspires artists of all kinds. Article Pg. 12

Matawatchan artist, Cathie Cooper, with one of her paintings, ready for Calabogie Artfest, one of many art events in the area.

...To a brilliantly coloured Autumn landscape shared by outdoor enthusiasts – artists, hikers, paddlers, hunters, fishers, musicians... Who doesn't love the Highlands in the Fall?

This issue is about art and the outdoors. It's also about remembrance and giving thanks, not just on the two holidays, but every day.

It is about remembering how we got here and being thankful for what we have. It's also about keeping vigilant about it all by electing people who share our values. It's up to all of us to pay attention. Be sure to vote in the municipal election on October 27.

This issue takes you to the peaceful places around Calabogie and on a day trip up and down the new Schooner Trail in North Frontenac. It commemorates sacrifices by people who went to war and those who were left behind.

We promise historical stories both tragic and delightful, a selection of issues that affect you, and a social calendar for residents and visitors to the Madawaska and Addington Highlands, as complete as we could assemble. Thank you for your input!

Enjoy...
